INFORMATION AND RULES FOR ANA CONVENTION PAGES

Young Numismatists who are members of the ANA and/or the host club will be given first consideration to page. All non-members will be alternates and used on an as-needed basis.

All pages are to attend official ANA YN functions. Paging during this time will require special permission from the Page Chairperson or his/her designee.

Pages must abide by the following requirements:

1. Register intent to be a page with the convention Page Chairperson prior to the convention.
2. Be at least 11 years of age and no older than 17 years of age.
3. Report to the Page Chairperson or his/her designee each shift before starting and when ending work. Report to the registration area during set up day or the Page table in or near the bourse once the convention is open.
4. Wear a photo ID at all times on the bourse floor.
5. Wear official ANA vest when working. Turn in the page vest daily to the Page Chairperson or his/her designee as soon as the work shift is completed. Do not leave the bourse floor wearing a page uniform.
6. Purchase food only at the convention center concession stands.
7. Charge no more than the actual cost for food and beverage. It is understood that pages may be given tips for their services, but do not ask for tips.
8. Be proficient at making change.
9. Be polite at all times.
10. Turn in all supplies provided by ANA at the end of each shift. ANA will supply paper towels, glass cleaner, pencils or pens and paper to take orders. Menus will be provided if available.
11. Do not purchase alcoholic beverages or cigarettes at anytime.
12. Do not pass out brochures or flyers without approval from the Page Chairperson.
13. Do not pass out brochures or flyers at the entrance to the bourse floor.
